MILLER-MECHLER

Miss Frances Ethelyn Mechler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin A.
Mechler of LaCoste, and Mr. Henry Bru Miller, only son of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Miller of Hondo, were married in a beautiful and solemn ceremony at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, October 24, in St. Patrick's Church of San Antonio. Rev. T. A.
Flynn officiating. The children's choir sang the nuptial mass.

Potted palms and pink giant dahlias added their beauty to the background of the white candlelit altars. The traditional bridal music was played as processional and recessional for the bridal party.

The bride was attended by Miss Marjorie Salzman of LaCoste as maid of honor, and Miss Hazel Jungman and Miss Isabel Mangold, also of La-Coste, as bridesmaids. Harry Fille-man of Hondo served the bridegroom as best man, and groomsmen were Melvin Finger of Hondo and Clayton Mangold of Cliff.

Bridal white was very becoming to the lovely brunette bride, whose gown of white taffeta was fashioned with a basque waist, and full skirt, a graceful bustle effect extending into a long train in back. Long sleeves, finished with tiny buttons at the wrist, a sweetheart neckline with a pleated taffeta frill forming a collar, and tiny white buttons extending down to the waist in back completed the dress. A short veil of bridal illusion was held to the head with a charming Elizabethan bonnet of the illusion and lilies of the valley. She carried an orchid and lilies of the valley bouquet.

The maid of honor was in royal blue taffeta, fashioned with full skirt and basque waist, and she carried a bouquet of gladioluses shading into rose. The bridesmaids' frocks, similar to that worn by the maid of honor, were of rose taffeta and their bouquets were blue delphiniums. The three attendants wore real flower turbans to match their bouquets.

The bridegroom and his attendants were attired in dark suits.
Following the ceremony, a breakfast and reception were held at Artist's Inn, San Antonio. The bridal motif was featured in the floral decorations and the bride's cake was a white-tied tiered confection, embossed with morning glories in pastel colors, and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Miss Salzman served the cake after the bride had cut the first slice. There were about sixty guests.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Miller left by auto for Carlsbad Caverns, New Mexico. The bride wore for travel a black crepe street dress with a heavy gold necklace, black hat trimmed with red, black accessories and an orchid corsage. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make their home in Hondo, residing on the highway just west of town. Mr. Miller is an employee of the Water Company here. Both the bride and bridegroom are descendants of pioneer Medina County families and have a host of friends.

Those from Hondo who attended the wedding were Mrs. O. H. Miller, Mrs. R. J. Noonan, Mrs. Thos. B.
Knopp and Mrs. J. M. Finger. Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Minna Hansen and daughter-in-law, Mrs.
Fritz Hansen, of Lake Charles, La., as well as a large number of relatives and friends from LaCoste, the bride's home.

BRINGS BACK VALUED TROPHY.

Howard Short, Hondo ranchman residing in the hill section of the northern part of Medina County, and his friend, G. J. Stroup of Texas City, Texas, returned Thursday of last week from a twelve-days hunting trip to the mountains of Colorado.
The gentlemen motored up to the mountain state for the novel sport of hunting elk. They made their headquarters at Gunnison, Colorado, and from there climbed to a place in the National Forest game preserve and made camp at an elevation of 9747 feet above sea-level. Snow was plentiful in the mountain depressions and the nights were so cold that ice had to be broken for water for making their morning ablutions.

Here they were in the native habitat of the elk. For several days they stalked their wily game without success, but finally came nimrod got a shot, and one shot apiece was enough —each got his elk! Mr. Short's quarry was somewhat the larger but Mr.
Stroup's had the larger set of antlers, his having 11 prongs and Mr. Short's 10.

The animals were killed at an altitude of from 11,000 to 12,000 feet and had to be skinned, allowed to cool where killed and brought away in parts. After about a week's shrinkage the dressed quarters, upon being weighed upon arrival at the Short ranch, averaged about 80 pounds each. The transporting of the animals from the scene of their kill was considerable of a task, but the flesh arrived in Texas in good condition and many of Mr. Short's friends, among them the M. E. and his family, were treated to the novel experience of feasting on elk meat.

The two sets of antlers are magnificent specimens and naturally are greatly prized by the two hunters.
They are at present on exhibition at the Fly Drug Co.

POSTED.

My pasture is leased for hunting.
Hunters please stay out. 10tc.

Texas Press Salutes John Garner

Ready to "Go With Garner" in 1940, hundreds of Texas newspapermen participating in Press Day at the Texas State Fair in Dallas visited the Garner-for-President booth and predicted a presidential nomination for Texas' Favorite Son. In the picture above, Walter Buckner, publisher of the San Marcos Record and president of the Texas Press Association, and Joe T. Cook (right), prominent editor of the Mission Times, are examining the Garner record, and Sam Holloway, publisher of the Deport Times and past president of the TPA, is signing the guest register, while Mrs. Dale Miller, hostess at the exhibit, looks on. Holloway's home town is on Blossom Prairie in Northeast Texas where John Garner lived as a boy before going to Uvalde to become a lawyer and country editor.

Owls Claw Warhorses

The Hondo Owls were again victorious last Saturday, when they downed their first conference, the Devine Warhorses, for 54 to 0.

Practically everyone on the team scored a touchdown. Jennings scored one on the interception of a pass. He scampered across without anyone on the defense touching him. Embrey scored twice, Hartung once, Kollman once and Finger three times.

The Owls played good ball but they could show much improvement on the defense, as well as the offense. The Owls' passing attack was not what it should be either.

The play by play descriptions were as follows:

First Quarter

Hartung started the game off by kicking to the Devine 15 and it was returned by Shoop 8 yards before he was downed. Two plays were tried by Devine for a total gain of 7 yards.

Shoop then kicked to Hondo. Finger went over left tackle for 5 yards. Finger went over right tackle for 4 yards. Kollman went over right guard for 5 yards. Finger went over left guard for 3 yards. A pass was tried but was incomplete. Finger went over the center for 5 yards. A pass was tried by Embrey and was completed to Hartung on the Devine 10. Finger went over left tackle for 5 yards. Finger went over left tackle for 5 yards and a touchdown. Hartung made the extra point. Hartung then kicked off to Devine and the ball was returned 11 yards. Shoop carried the ball on three consecutive plays for 10 yards and a first down for Devine. Two passes were completed for a total gain of 4 yards. Shoop went around right end for 2 yards. Shoop then lost 3 yards over right tackle. The ball went over to Hondo on downs. Finger went over right tackle for 35 yards and a touchdown. Hartung kicked the extra point. Hartung kicked to Devine and the ball was returned to the 25 by Shoop. Shoop went over right guard for 1 yard. A pass and a lateral netted Devine 12 yards, as the quarter ended. Score: Hondo 14; Devine 0.

Second Quarter

A pass was tried by Devine but the passer was set back 15 yards. Another pass was tried but was incomplete. Shoop then kicked to Hondo. Embrey tried a pass but it was incomplete. Embrey faked a pass and made 1 yard. Leinweber made 2 yards over left tackle. Jennings dropped back and kicked the ball over the goal line. Four plays were tried by Devine for a gain of 9 1-2

Owls Tangle With Jackrabbits

The Hondo Owls meet the Brackettville Jackrabbits, their second conference foes, here tonight on Barry Field. The game is scheduled to start at eight o'clock. This will be the second conference game for the Owls who defeated the Devine Warhorses last Friday by the score of 54 to 0.

Nothing is known of the Brackettville line but they are supposed to have a backfield equally as fast as the Owl backfield.

The Owls have scored 172 points to their opponents' 12 thus far in the season. Crystal City fell 39 to 0; Burbank 25 to 12; Carrizo Springs 27 to 0; Pearsall 27 to 0; and Devine was snowed under by the score of 54 to 0. It is not known how many points the Jackrabbits have scored this season.

The Owls have been getting some fine support from the home town folks. It would be very nice if they continued to receive this support, so let's all be at the game Friday night and boost the Owls to victory.

yards. The ball went over to Hondo on downs. Finger went over right tackle for 9 yards. Kollman went over right guard for 4 yards. Finger made 6 yards on two consecutive plays. Kollman made 2 yards over right guard. Finger made 4 yards over left tackle. Kollman went over right guard for 3 yards and a touchdown. Hartung tried for the extra point but it was wide. Hartung kicked to the Devine 20, the ball being returned to the 37. Two plays lost 4 yards for Devine, so they kicked to Hondo. Leinweber made 10 yards over right tackle. A pass

LEINWEBER-NIETENHOEFER

An occasion for much joy and merrymaking was the marriage of Miss Alice Nietenhoefer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nietenhoefer of Hondo, and Mr. Milton Leinweber, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Leinweber of Hondo, which occurred at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, October 25, 1939, in Quibi Lutheran Church, with Rev. C. Weber officiating.

The church was adorned with seasonal flowers, and the bride music was played by Miss Corinne Nietenhoefer, cousin to both the bride and the bridegroom. Attendants were Miss Eileen Nietenhoefer, sister of the bride, and Mr. Marvin Leinweber, the bridegroom's brother, of Chapman Ranch.

The bride wore a pretty dress of white satin, fashioned on princess lines with a long train. Her long veil of illusion was held to the head with a coronet of white flowers and she carried a bouquet of white lilies and lace fern. The bridesmaid's frock was of peacock blue satin made with a long flared skirt and tight bodice. Her bouquet was pink lilies and fern. The bridegroom was attired in Oxford grey and his brother was in navy blue. They wore boutonnières of white lily petals.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents to members of the wedding party, the immediate families of the couple and close relatives and friends. The four-layered wedding cake was iced in white and held a miniature bride and groom. Wednesday night a grand dance, open to all who wished to attend and join in the felicitations to the happy couple, was held at the Quibi Gun Club Hall. Music was furnished by the Leinweber School Boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Leinweber left Thursday morning for a wedding trip to Galveston, the bride traveling in a crepe dress in the new grape shade with black accessories. On their return they will make their home with the bridegroom's parents, while Mr. Leinweber engages in farming.

Congratulations and best wishes are extended the young couple for a long and happy married life.

THEY LEARN OF HONDO AFAR OFF

Earl Boon, whose business as a dealer in cattle necessitates considerable traveling, was in Kansas City, Missouri, recently, and while transacting business in one of the livestock commission companies' offices, found among the employees of the company a gentleman who is a subscriber to FARMING. He was interested mainly in its horticultural features—horticulture being a hobby with him—and was glad to meet a man from Hondo and learn first hand about Hondo and Southwest Texas.

Recently Mrs. Flozari Rockwood of Cleveland, Ohio, who edits the "Bards of Today" column found elsewhere in this paper, attended National Poetry Week observances in various places, meeting nationally known poets from all over the country. At a night session of one of the numerous literary and social functions which she attended during the week in New York, Mrs. Rockwood was signally honored and she tells of it in her Notebook as follows:

"Just before the close of the celebration Anita Browne called Flozari to rise, and presented her with a gold medal in honor of being the nation's outstanding poetry journal editor, mentioning her columns, BARDS OF TODAY IN HONDO, TEXAS, AN-VIL HERALD, Riding on Pegasus in Christian Visitor, and The Garret, Modern Bards and Notebook". The three latter publications are outstanding poetry journals and are edited by Mrs. Rockwood.

Assuredly The Anvil Herald was honored by being mentioned in such distinguished company.

Thus is Hondo being learned of afar off!

PERSONAL APPEARANCE

While the Owls are long on scores, like that 54 to 0 debacle, we'll have to limit ourselves to short shorts:

The BOY SCOUTS should have the thanks—and donations—of all for so efficiently carrying out their miscellaneous duties . . . from locating seats to locating lost children and husbands, and totin' soda water and sandwiches to those whose flesh is willing to eat but the spirit too lazy to go and get it.

ROY BOHLEN and ALEEN GRELL not worried over the crowded conditions of their particular part of the bleachers . . . in fact, rather liking it.

Sabinal's favorite tune turned out to be "Josephine" . . . which was Cotulla's last season.

Does that V formed by the Pep Squad at the goal post mean Victory?
CLINTON HARTUNG hasn't got long arms and legs for nothing . . . and if he has ever been called "Slats" I bet that 46-yard run and touchdown took away part of the sting.

THE PRESS BOX was oozing intrigue what with two Del Rio scouts . . . doing their good deed for anybody but Hondo.

The Devine band should have gotten a bigger band.

The smartest outfit we saw was worn by MRS. MARGUERITE MUR-RILL and we especially liked the hat with the bit of fur.

Fur and feathers will fly tonight when the Brackettville Jackrabbits and the Hondo Owls meet on Barry Field.

Oh heart, bereft of warmth and song.

Drouthy conditions during the winter and spring months of 1938-39 throughout most of the sheep country were not favorable for sheep, and fleece weights were lighter than usual over much of this territory. In 1938, the Texas fall wool production was estimated at 11,672,000 pounds. This fall the fleece weights are also expected to be lighter, and a production of only 10,835,000 pounds is estimated. This year's spring clip amounted to 65,974,000 pounds compared with the 1938 spring clip of 67,633,000 pounds.

Seay, president of the State Fair. The huge livestock show was cinched for the State Fair when the American Hereford Association switched from the American Royal at Kansas City to the Texas fair. Interest in other breeds and classifications of livestock has shown a marked increase with the big Hereford Show. Premiums in almost all breeds have been substantially increased for year. The Breeder-Feeder Association of which Frank P. Hollans immediately will make plans at the judging of the livestock will be highly educational. Judging will explain why one animal is better than another. One of the plans will carry a special ticket to the fair only on judging days. These tickets will carry an arena program means to bring as many 4-H club members and Future Farmers in first with the Texas Breeder-Feeder association will be the Texas Press Association, the Texas Bankers Association, the Hardware and Implement Dealers Association, and others.

"TEXAS' NO. 1 NEWSPAPER"

"The Dallas News is one of the best newspapers in America. It is free from sensationalism, its editorials are admirable in matter and expression, and its reports accurate." —From Autobiography With Letters by William Lyon Phelps, published by Oxford University Press, 1939.

The News relies not alone on one great wire service—it has TWO... the greatest in the world—Associated Press and United Press. It also has the great wire feature service of North American Newspaper Alliance (NANA). Most newspapers would be content with these—but NOT the News, which also maintains its exclusively-owned bureaus in Washington, Austin, East, West and Central Texas... to say nothing of more than 200 local correspondents scattered over the Southwest... and the largest local staff of editors, reporters, artists and feature writers of any newspaper in Texas.

Donations for the celebration fund have slowed up the past week. However, this may be due to the fact that several committees have not been heard from as yet. Everyone pitch in and help the committees all you possibly can.

Those applicants who are already connected to the lines will be formally voted into the membership at the next Board of Directors meeting Tuesday, Oct. 31. Membership certificates will be issued as soon as possible to those of you voted in. The By-laws of the Co-operative state that applicants must be receiving the service before they can become members. These certificates should be framed or put away so that they may serve to remind each member in the years to come of his efforts in making this venture a success.

Let's put our celebration over.

CO-OP NEWS

At last, lights in the rural homes of Medina County. Last Saturday, Oct. 21, 45 miles of line were energized for test purposes. After finding the line in perfect order, Mr. Rook, resident engineer, ordered the maintenance department to start cutting in the members. By 6 P. M. Saturday evening, fifteen members were receiving the service. By Sunday noon seventeen more members had been connected and by Monday some ninety members had lights and power. After nearly a year of hard work the members were beginning to realize the fruits of their labors.

About ten more miles of line will be energized Friday, October 27. By Monday the entire northern section of the Project should be receiving service. The entire Project will be energized by the first of November.

Plans for the big celebration the 4th of November are almost completed. Almost all the major appliance manufacturers' local dealers and distributors will have displays and demonstrations on the grounds. These appliances and equipment will be in operation so that every member can familiarize themselves with the various advantages of each. Among the appliances displayed will be ranges, refrigerators, water heaters, washing machines, radios, roasters, toasters, waffle irons, irons, ironers, water pumps, hammermills, motors, and various others.

Following what must have been a heavy rain on the headwaters of the Hondo, above Tarpley, Tuesday night, there was a several foot rise in the Hondo creek here, and it is reported still flowing Thursday afternoon. Only a light sprinkle fell here during the night.

C. A. Oefinger was a business caller at this office Tuesday. Mr. Oefinger reports the range problem becoming a serious one, the little rains we have had at intervals since the first of August being too far apart to maintain a continuous growth of vegetation.

Mr. Zinsmeyer's mother recently died at an advanced age. She and her husband, who preceded her in death by some years, had been long-time readers of this paper, and Mr. Zinsmeyer emulates their example by having it continued to his own address.

QUIHI NOTES.

Surrounded by many friends and relatives, two young people joined hearts and hands in holy wedlock at our little church last Wednesday. They were Milton Alfred Leinweber, the son of Mr. and Mrs. August Leinweber, having wooed and won Miss Alice Rose Mary Nietenhoefer, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nietenhoefer. Under the bridal strains played by Miss Corine Nietenhoefer, the bridal couple marched in, preceded by Mr. Marvin Leinweber and Miss Eileen Nietenhoefer. The exchange of rings was part of the ceremony. There is much room for descriptive features as to the gowns worn for the occasion. We better not try. May their future be bright under the blessings of God. Their many friends, I know, will join me in this wish.

Let's not forget, let me mention the contributors for the next Luther League program: Select readings, Mr. Arnold Reiter, Henry Buss, Jr., Wilfred Schulte; vocal selections, Mr. Rolf Saathoff, Miss Lillian Hartman, Miss Lucille Boehle; instrumental selection, Miss Corine Nietenhoefer; including the half dozen of standing numbers. November the 4th is the date for the next program.

Mrs. John G. Bohlen is a very sick patient and little hope is held out for recovery. The Lord has visited her with a long and painful period of sickness, but she has held out with heroic fortitude, trusting her gracious God. His will be done. Your prayers are in order for the whole family.

Announcements for October 29, 1939: German service at New Fountain at 10 A. M.; English service at 7:30 P. M. These services are for you and yours. Come while you may. A cordial invitation to you.

—C. W.

MISS WOLFF HONORED

Miss Mildred Wolff, a bride-elect of this month, was honored with a lovely miscellaneous shower last Sunday afternoon at the Dairyland Creamery auditorium in San Antonio, the hostesses being the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. L. C. Mohrley, and sister-in-law, Mrs. R. C. Wolff.

The honoree opened the many useful and beautiful gifts which were then viewed by the guests.

The auditorium was decorated with floor baskets and vases of crepe myrtle. Tables were arranged with green and white checkered linen table cloths and napkins. Delicious refreshments of orange sherbet and chocolate pecan cake were served to about thirty guests.

Miss Wolff's marriage to Mr. Wesley Huesser of Hondo takes place Saturday, October 28.

NEW BUSINESS OPENS.

Charles Ramsey, a West Texan but up to recently engaged in business in Houston, will open a dry goods and notion store tomorrow, October 28th, in the Henry Rothe building next door north of Heyen's Coffee Shop. The store will specialize in Home Goods and carry an extensive variety from paint to cover the outside to rugs to walk on the inside of the house. There are utensils for that home, such as stoves to cook the food on to dishes to serve it in. Then there is wearing apparel for every member of the family, from socks to shirts for the man and lingerie for the ladies.

But see Mr. Ramsey's announcement on page five of this paper and accept his invitation to call and get acquainted.

Marvin Leinweber, here from the Chapman Ranch below Corpus Christi, for the Leinweber-Nietenhoefer nuptials at Quibi Wednesday, was an appreciated caller at this office yesterday, while enroute to his home there. Mr. Leinweber is a Hondo boy, a son of Mr. and Mrs. August Leinweber, but has been employed for several years at Chapman Ranch.

Elmer J. Leinweber reports another consignment of fish from the Uvalde fish hatchery since our last report. This was an assortment of some 8,000 crappie and bream, and since they were placed just before the rise it is figured that they are well distributed up and down the stream by now. The consignment was handled through the Medina County Wild Life Association of which O. A. Fly is Secretary.

Mr. L. F. Rothe went to San Antonio last Thursday and on Saturday, October 21, underwent a major operation at the Santa Rosa Hospital. Although he is very sick and weak from the ordeal at this time, Mr. Rothe's family is hopeful over his condition, and his friends wish him a rapid return to his former good health. Mrs. Rothe and her daughters, Mrs. A. C. Bless and Miss Jo Nell Rothe, and her son, Homer Rothe, are taking turns at remaining at Mr. Rothe's bedside.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of the Norge Refrigerator on the last page of this paper. The distributor of this popular household utility, the firm of McCrea & Heilgman, is a successful mercantile firm at Yancey that is broadening out to meet the demands of modern progress. They extend an invitation to the readers of this paper to investigate the merits of their utility before making purchase elsewhere. Good roads from every direction to Yancey makes their place convenient and easy of access to prospective shoppers.

Mr. Amos E. Harlee of Hondo was recently notified that he had been granted by the Railroad Commission of Texas a permit authorizing operation of a Special Commodity Motor Carrier Service from all points in Medina County to all points in Texas West and South of U. S. Highway 81 from Ringgold to Austin, U. S. Highway 290 from Austin to Houston and U. S. Highway 75 from Houston to Galveston, and back to Medina County. The permit is for two trucks and Mr. Harlee has insured with a reputable motor carrier insurance agency and is ready to serve the public. Watch this paper for announcement when Mr. Harlee institutes this service.

Rev. W. S. Highsmith was returned to the Methodist charge here by the annual conference which closed Sunday night after a week's session in San Antonio. In this appointment, Rev. Highsmith achieves a unique distinction. Since the establishment of the local church organization, some fifty years ago, he is the first one of the numerous ministers who have served it to be returned to the charge for a fourth consecutive year. One or two have served for 4 years or more, but theirs were return appointments after an intervening term of years had lapsed; never before consecutively. Rev. Highsmith's friends rejoice with him in the confidence thus shown him by the authorities of his church.

"This coming year I intend to have enough carrots in trench silos to feed my cattle about a year. It is the best feed of this kind that I have ever used," states Clarence Personius, farmer of the Santa Maria community in Cameron county. He has had wonderful success in feeding his registered Durocs and his dairy herd carrots from his trench silo this year. Personius put all the carrots he had which he could dry, in his silo last year and has fed them continuously since early spring to 12 cows and 15 head of hogs and finds them to be highly successful feed.
Young Donald Tschirhart, second son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Tschirhart of Hondo, fell from the running board of a car one day last week and suffered a fractured leg. Although a painful injury, Donald is recuperating satisfactorily and it is hoped he will soon be back playing with his classmates at St. John's School.
Work on the traffic signals on Highway 90 in Hondo was completed Wednesday of this week and the lights were turned on for a few hours in the afternoon for test purposes only. The signals will be in service as soon as they receive State Highway Department approval, which probably will be this week-end.

COMMISSIONERS' COURT IN CALLED SESSION

On call of the County Judge A. H. Rothe, the Commissioners' Court of Medina County met Wednesday, Oct. 25, with all members present except Commissioner of Precinct No. 4.
Finding it advisable and necessary to make expenditures for the purchase of right-of-way and the fencing thereof in Commissioners' Precincts 1, 2 and 4, and no funds available, the Court determined to issue time, interest bearing warrants to evidence the indebtedness incurred and ordered notice of intention to issue the warrants be published. Elsewhere in this paper will be found the order.
A motion was made and carried to inform by air mail or telegram both Senator Tom Connally and Congressman Milton H. West of the extreme drouth conditions prevailing in Medina County and requesting that from $60,000 to $100,000 out of the $50,000,000.00 federal relief fund be allocated to Medina County for much needed relief during the next 6 or 8 months.
The Court considered the application by the Hondo National Bank to withdraw certain securities now held by the Court under the terms of the County Depository Pledge Contract, from the National Bank of Commerce in San Antonio and substitute other securities. The Court voted to grant the application.
The Court recessed subject to call by the County Judge.

JIMMY GETS THE COWS (A Child's Story)

By Gladys Naomi Arnold

They had gone to the field to watch the wheat harvest, but a Kansas farm in June keeps the men too busy to answer a boy's questions. So when Dad said, "Can't you and your dog find a cool spot?" Jimmy whistled to King George.

The cottonwood grove was their favorite refuge from the world of grown-ups. Jimmy threw his straw hat on the ground and stretched out in the shade. "Whew, George, it's too hot to even go to the creek." The collie panted in relief and rolled over on the grass to show his approval. Jimmy patted him lazily and soon both of them fell asleep.

"Oh, Jimmy!" He woke with a start at his mother's call. Grey clouds covered the sun. The rustle of the cottonwood leaves was certain warning of a change in the weather.

"What do you want, Mom?" Boy and dog made a dash for the house. "There is a storm coming. You had better go for the cows right away."

Jimmy ran to the barn for his pony. He liked this job which was particularly his own, but it was more fun this afternoon when they could race with the storm. Chocky was a glassy black and Jimmy never tired of using the currycomb and brush. Dad had bought her from some Choctaw Indians so Jimmy usually rode Indian fashion, bareback and with no bridle. He guided her by his hand on her mane and his bare feet against her flanks.

The wind was coming up. Jagged streaks of lightning flashed across the sky. Then came the sharp cracks of thunder. Jimmy gave a whoop and leaned over Chocky's neck as they raced toward the pasture.

"Don't you buck with me now, Chocky. This is no time to show your temper." But the pony, a creature of the plains, was in no mood for mischief. There was work to be done and she followed the lead of the collie. King George was wildly excited. He was trained to play this game of hide-and-seek.

The cattle were scattered over the pasture. The collie rounded up the one's nearest together and started them toward the lane leading to the corral. A few stragglers could always be counted on to follow the leaders, but as usual the black and white cow headed for the farthest corner of the pasture. Jimmy had tried all the tricks he knew to train Old Blackie, but she never failed to give him trouble when he was in a hurry. He yelled at George, and Chocky was off like a streak. They chased her to the fence and Jimmy shouted, "Now we've got you. You can't go over or under."

With George at her heels and Chocky beside her, Blackie could do nothing but move ahead. A quick clasp of thunder scared her into a run and she was soon with the rest of the herd. Jimmy counted to make sure that he had them all. Only nineteen! There should be twenty. The little Jersey was missing. A slap on the pony's neck made her turn to the right and start on a lunge toward the sumac thicket. Jimmy caught sight of a tawny object beyond the farthest bush. "She may think she's being different but I could tell her she's just an uppish little snip. Serve her right if she gets soaked." But instead of the Jersey he found a faded piece of brown wrapping paper lodged in the sumac.

The clump of scrub oaks was the only other possible hiding place. The lightning was so close that Jimmy was getting a bit shaky. The wind whipped a big branch off a box elder tree and flung it right in their path. Jimmy was terrified, but Chocky veered to the left and Jimmy clung to her mane as she pushed on into the little grove. In two minutes they had the frightened little heifer out in the open and heading for shelter.

Now the entire herd was in the lane and King George barked at their heels to remind them that he was the master. "Good work, Georgie, old boy, old pal! Let's put them on the run!" Dad had warned him never to run the cattle just for fun, but this was what Mom called an emergency. They had to beat the storm.

The men came hurrying from the field. They had watched the approach of the storm and had worked faster to get the last round of bundles into shocks. Jimmy shouted to them, "You'd better make a run for the barn or you'll get wet!" He had to close the gate into the corral, but Dad held the barn door open and he hurried Chocky through just as the first big drops peppered on the roof.

Dad had a way all his own of tousling Jimmy's hair, rubbing Chocky's nose, and pulling King George's ears, when he was particularly pleased over something they had done. "I couldn't run a farm without a boy and a pony and a dog. That was a quick piece of work. The three of you always come through."

A deep roar of thunder was followed by a downpour that might last for hours. After days of continued drouth, the parched fields would be cooled and the blades of green corn would unroll and start to grow. The tired men welcomed the chance to rest, but Jimmy and Chocky and George were thrilled with their victory. They had won their race in a glorious finish and would soon enjoy their reward. It was almost time for supper!

John Love, Randall county farmer, living three miles east of Canyon, says that contouring for the past three years has doubled crop yield for him over the three preceding years. On one forty-acre field he produced between four and five thousand bundles with little or no grain when it was planted on the contour but with contour planting this same field produced between eight and nine thousand bundles. Mr. Love says this is proof enough for him.

POLITICAL ECONOMY.

By Frank Littig.

When Congress and Legislatures convene business goes into a decline. And continues to get worse until Congress and Legislatures adjourn. When Congress and the State Legislatures adjourn business starts to improve. And business continues to improve until Congress and the State Legislatures convene again.

So we must remove the cause of our troubles. Congress and Legislatures consist of Politics and Politicians. Our government has degenerated into a government of the Politicians. By the Politicians and For the Politicians. WE DO NOT NEED CONGRESS. WE DO NOT NEED STATE LEGISLATURES. These institutions were all right when the country was small and we could watch each and every member.

All we need at Washington is a President, Vice President and the Cabinet or a head of each department. These public servants must be executive only and elected by the people by direct vote. All of the laws must be made by a vote of all the people.

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE MUST BE THE CONSTITUTION, CHARTER AND LAW OF THE ENTIRE COUNTRY. A majority of votes of the people at any election shall be the voice of the people. Where two or more laws conflict the one receiving the most affirmative votes shall prevail. The people are the governments and the courts. No one can set aside the choice of the people.

POLITICIANS MAKE WARS. POLITICIANS MAKE UNNECESSARY TAXES. POLITICIANS MAKE PANICS AND DEPRESSIONS. POLITICIANS PREY UPON CAPITAL. POLITICIANS MAKE THINGS HARD FOR LABOR.

All we need at the head of any state government is a Governor, Lieutenant Governor and a Cabinet or head of each department. All elected by a direct vote of the people of the state.

Candidates for public service must be trained in public schools under the control of the public. Schools like West Point and Annapolis, teaching public service. All initiative must come from the people. All legislating must be done with a direct vote of all the people.

There can be no justice or decency as long as we tolerate politics and politicians. People must rule. The courts and making of all laws must be returned to the people. People will make some mistakes in legislating. Politicians and other parasites will inject jokers into initiative measures. Parasites will join any movement for the better and do all they can to make things worse. But people will gradually learn by experience to avoid the pitfalls of grafters, crooks and racketeers.

THERE IS ENOUGH OF EVERYTHING IN THIS WORLD FOR EVERYBODY AND EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE EVERYTHING THEY WANT. We have to get rid of every bond. There is no liberty where there is bonds. You cannot have bonds without having slaves. People must also use, own and control their own money.

WE NEED ONLY ONE TAX. A SINGLE TAX. A SINGLE TAX ON PROFIT ONLY. A one per cent annual tax on the first ten thousand dollars profit. Two per cent on the second ten thousand dollars profit. Three per cent on the third ten thousand dollars profit. Adding one per cent more tax to each additional ten thousand dollars profit per annum.

Until a hundred per cent tax is made on all profit over a million dollars. (Copyright 1939 by Frank Littig).

FABLE OF THE GREY STALLION.

By David W. Cade.

Drouth and consequent famine swept the land far and wide. Green was to be found only in rare crevices or "pockets". The herd, driven by an ever increasing need of food, pressed on in the teeth of the dry west wind. A sense of common necessity kept the horses together and caused them to move in orderly fashion. Water was scarce and an occult sense with which animals in distress are frequently invested, told them that when a breeze blows steadily day after day from one direction that down that way lies water and growing shrubbery. The horses, moving ever west, came late one afternoon to a line of scant limbed trees. They moved on in and made "Dry Camp" in the undernourished forest. Now in the band there was one who held his head high. His was a sleepless purpose. The Grey Stallion betook himself on a lonely journey. Under the full round Moon while the others slept, he softly climbed a ridge, and beheld his forethought was rewarded. Before his eyes lay a broad meadow lush with waving billows of grass. It rolled away under the moon, quite untenanted. There was grazing for untold millions of his kind; enough and to spare. The Grey Stallion was no romantic fool; and he had his wits about him. He went his way back to the sleeping and exhausted herd. Arriving there he cautiously awakened: One Merlinous, sage, priest and law-giver, and whispered to him the details of his find. The Sage did not believe his place in the herd. His reaction was immediate and drastic. Whinnying shrilly, bringing the entire herd to feet, he proclaimed: "The Mighty Horse-God Buchepalus from the flowering fields of Elysium has heard My prayers and granted, through me, a boon. Just ahead lies pastures of unlimited extent. These, by the sacred right of property, belong solely to The Grey Stallion, his devisors, and legatees forever by right of discovery" (As the Bug got there first) but no doubt he will be reasonable and let you buy enough of his grass to keep the bodies and souls of ye together. Now do any of you Sorrels or Dapples object?—None objected. 'Tis well that ye do not grumble. Ye Reds, Sorrels and Dapples, as otherwise ye would become a "Red Menace" and we'd have had to deport ye back to where we all came from. We will have no one in our new land who does not think aright, and which being interpreted means: You must think just as WE tell you to think or you are declared a Sorrel and sent back to the dry lands.—This is the end of the fable of "The Grey Stallion".

Perhaps you don't understand its full import. Not just yet, but you will. You must read and believe what 95% of the editorials say about the Man who has twice been elected President of this our Democratic Country, after disciplining your mind so that you can still believe in the sincerity of these editorials. Then, My children, you are indeed saved though your body perish your soul will find place in heaven with the Pure Souled democrats who opposed everything that they were elected to advocate. Of such are the Kingdom of Heaven—Perhaps.

Dear Fletcher: Lest you suspect me of subversive views. (Heaven forbid) let me state. My great grandfather signed the Immortal Declaration in 1776. (He after the revolutionary war, served three years in a debtor's prison.) My grandfather was enrolled and took part in the war of 1812-14. My father served four years in the War between the States and came out with a limp. I am a constitutional physical coward yet I have worn a uniform and seen men shot down almost beside me. My old boyhood chum, now a bank manager, said to me: "Oh, yes, Dave, All you writer folk are radical, I've found them so" "Maybe so, Joe," I replied.

The Declaration of Independence should have also added to its catalogue of God-given rights the right to earn a livelihood. Enforced lack of means to earn a decent livelihood is also a God-given right. TO HAVE TO TAKE A PAUPER'S OATH IN ORDER TO GET WORK, as the new WPA Act just passed does require, IS A BLOT ON OUR NATIONAL HONOR and a disgrace to every congressman who voted for it. It's inhuman and to find its match one must go back to the Bourbon regime in France prior to the fall of the Bastille. Perhaps, in common decency we should have the grace to give this country back to the Indians; then all of us go back to Europe, where we belong.

Editorial Comment.

That's a striking allegory, worthy of any man's thoughtful perusal.

But let's not jump at its implications until we have plumbed its potentialities.

If man in his boastful claims of godhood ever justifies that claim it is in his rightful use of the Divine attributes of mind.

If he ever personifies the devil it is in the abuse or misuse of those same attributes.

The problem of life is to KNOW the dividing line—often tangled and confused and seldom plain—and WILLING to plumb that line, when it is discerned, on the God-like side.

So with a full comprehension of the evils of monopoly of nature's resources, let us not forget that without the "grey stallions"—which nature SPORTS or GOD CALLS to do His purpose, as you wish to believe—we would still be spineless fishes or tadpoles in a primeval bog!

Without the urge to achievement all is stagnation and fog!

With advancement the race must ever belong to the swift.

The greatest good and the minimum of harm comes to humanity when the swift are likewise the wise, the prudent, the just, and the good!

MEN GROW THEIR OWN SOULS.

Selfish
Am I? Because I can not serve—how can I, till I have become myself—My own.
To live
For others may Be a selfish thing or
It may be a selfish way to shirk Your own—

GRANDMOTHER'S ORCHARD

SHE made her hilly orchard stand. Her trailing arbor vines take root; Not grieving that another hand Than hers would pluck the ripened fruit.

She worked with love and deep content. And now the vine and orchard bring Her living will and testament Of faith in farther, fairer spring.

When misty April climbs the hill And pear trees shed their lyric bloom. The apple blossoms drift and spill, Far lovelier than a marble tomb.

Head Brewing Industry Program Planned in the Public Interest

10,000 MILLIONS HAVE BEEN ADDED TO THE INCOME OF WORKERS IN AGRICULTURE, INDUSTRY AND BUSINESS SINCE BEER AND ALE SINCE APRIL 1939

Newly elected officers of the United Brewers Industrial Foundation, who will direct the industry's public service program. Left to right: Rudolf J. Schaefer, Treasurer; Carl W. Badenhausen, Chairman; A. Kirschstein, Second Vice-Chairman; and S. E. Abrams, First Vice-Chairman.

GRATIFIED by public endorsement of its policies, the United Brewers Industrial Foundation at its Convention in New York City enthusiastically voted continuation of its program to align the brewing industry with the public interest.

New officers were selected to carry on the advertising, research and industry self-regulation activities inaugurated by their predecessors as a means of interpreting the industry to the public and the public to the industry.

Carl W. Badenhausen, of Newark, N. J., was named Chairman of the Foundation for the coming year. Other officers elected were S. E. Abrams, Milwaukee, Wis., First Vice Chairman; A. Kirschstein, Waukesha, Wis., Second Vice-Chairman; and Rudolf J. Schaefer, Brooklyn, N. Y., Treasurer.

Brewers and allied industry representatives from all parts of the United States participated in the discussion. They approved reports from nine states in which the industry is carrying on a program cooperation with law enforcement officials to "clean-up or close-up" the small minority of establishments in which objectionable conditions surround the sale of beer.

"The Foundation program and objectives should be sufficient evidence that the brewing industry in this country has recognized its social responsibilities," Mr. Badenhausen said in assuming his office. "The faithful discharge of those responsibilities means the preservation for the country of an industry which has made substantial tax contributions, created employment, and stimulated local business everywhere."

"NOBODY'S BUSINESS."

By Julian Capers, Jr.

The opinions here expressed are the author's own and not necessarily those of this paper.—M. E.

Washington always tries to keep in season, and this is the season for football. Washington's backfield appropriately is using football tactics to confuse the opposition.

In politics as in football, certain maxims are accepted. One is: "Razzle-dazzle in the backfield gets the other fellow's eye off the ball." Another is the old favorite: "A good defense is the best defense."

Just to show how the razzle-dazzle is working, here's a sample:

Benjamin Gitlow, former secretary, Earl Browder, present kingpin of the Communist party, and a number of other witnesses told the Dies committee that certain organizations were "fronts" for the Communists or outlets for radical propaganda. Among those enumerated was the American League for Peace and Democracy.

New the League, without specifically denying these accusations, responds back with another. It accuses the Dies committee of using illegal methods to get its membership list.

—WSS—
But there are more important trick plays being tried than that. It happens that the United States is interested in what happens abroad. Through the newspapers, American citizens have their eyes on Europe. And while they are watching the other team line up, a couple of opposition ends and backs sneak off toward the side-lines and lie down on the ground. That trick may be old in football, but it's still good in politics.
And here's the way it's working now.

Congress has put aside everything for the special session but neutrality.
That means that it is not worrying with other things which the public wants, like amendments to various experimental laws. Meanwhile, the boys who are out near the sidelines, like Assistant Attorney General Thurman Arnold, are trying to sneak play.

Arnold has made a number of speeches around the country advocating new and drastic laws which he would like to have. Ordinarily, his remarks would get newspaper publicity and reaction from thousands of newspaper readers. But now he goes on the inside pages, and the only people who know anything about his plans are the friendly ones to whom he talks.

At the same time, many, many things are being put into legislative shape for presentation to Congress.
And the nation as steps necessary for national defense. There is even talk about reviving the NRA on the ground that government controls must be set up to protect the nation.
Unless Americans are able to see through the razzle-dazzle, a lot of things are going to happen to them rather unexpectedly. With business improving, new steps could be taken toward balancing the budget and restoring financial sanity. But war news takes the front page, so few people know that Federal expenditures this year will set a new peacetime high—more than nine and a half billion dollars. That will mean an eighth consecutive year of deficits.

Another fast play contemplated by the boys on the wings is that of getting the present federal debt limit upped from $45 billion to some high astronomical figure. And of course they are hard at work on ways to raise more tax money for a paternalistic government.

The truth of the situation is that the planners were just about to be taken out of the game because the public was tiring of their tricks. The people wanted a little straight football for a change. But now Europe occupies public attention, the tricksters are still in the line-up, and they feel that they can put over what they want to.

The result will depend upon whether the razzle-dazzle trick of transferring American interest from domestic issues to European war is successful.

—WSS—
THE MORE DEADLY OF THE SPECIES

Congressman Martin Dies, head of the Congressional Committee investigating subversive elements in America, has indicated that more than 100,000 Communists may soon be removed from the Federal payroll. And Americans have applauded.

But in the midst of the enthusiasm over such a prospect perhaps the full import of the disclosure that this many "Reds" were holding Government jobs has been overlooked. It is of tremendous import, not because it represents several million dollars a year out of the taxpayer's pocket for their salary, but because it reveals Communism more deeply rooted in America than even some of the most ardent so-called red-baiters believed.

The popular concept of a Communist, in the minds of most people, is a bushy-haired individual haranguing listeners from a soap box in New York's Union Square. There are many such haranguers in New York and other communities, but they are comparatively harmless beside the type now uncovered by the Dies Committee.

Those now exposed are the deadlier of the species, for they, like some other types of racketeers, carry on their nefarious activities behind the cloak of respectability.

Americans wish Mr. Dies every success in his efforts to rid the Federal payroll of this menacing element.

WASHINGTON SNAPSHOTS . . .

by
James Preston

The opinions here expressed are Mr. Preston's own and not necessarily those of this paper.—M. E.

AUSTIN, Oct. 22, 1939.—The firm belief that there will be no special session of the Texas legislature was virtually unanimous among political observers here, following the visit of Lieutenant Governor Coke Stevenson, of Junction, and his statement to the press after the conference with Gov. O'Daniel. Stevenson told reporters that unless an agreed plan of taxation can be worked out in advance of a special session, it "would be a waste of time" to call the session.

Stevenson is a conservative in his legislative views, holding to much the same beliefs as the large interests which have been seeking ever since O'Daniel was inaugurated to write into the fundamental law of the land.
He represented a conservative constituency, made up of large ranch owners while in the House. He believes in a sales tax, and in his strenuous runoff campaign against P.
Pierce Brooks, the large interests of the State which have long sought to replace ad valorem state taxes with a sales tax, came loyally to Stevenson's aid. Gov. O'Daniel endorsed Stevenson, and the belief of many observers here is that the endorsement was a major factor in Stevenson's winning.

Coke's Position Curious

There is some disposition to wonder, however, how the Lieutenant Governor, who is an able lawyer and a real authority on the Texas constitution, can consistently advocate that the legislators abrogate their constitutional oath of office, waive their rights as law-makers, and commit themselves blindly in advance to a taxation bill proposed by the chief executive. Observers feel reasonably certain that a majority of neither house nor senate will do so. The logical step then, for O'Daniel, is to announce this fact, declare he cannot get the legislators to agree, and refuse to call a session. The political strategy of such a course is good.
The vast majority of laymen do not understand the legal separation of the functions of the executive and the legislative branches. They do not know that the legislators are supreme in matters of taxation, and that the constitution inhibits any such subservient course as O'Daniel requests, even if they were willing to accede to his request.

Freight Rate Action

The Texas Railroad Commission made history this week when it ordered abolished on intrastate freight shipments the 15 percent differential now charged in certain West Texas territory and the Rio Grande Valley by the railroads. The roads imposed this extra charge years ago, on the theory that a higher rate was justified in a sparsely settled region. Population increases in the valley and West Texas have largely eliminated the excuse for the gouge, and the Commission ruled it could no longer be collected by the railroads.

Mann Rides Again

Jerry Mann, the triple-threat Attorney General, scored another large gain for the farmers of Texas, unless the courts later declare the play off-side, when he filed suit against eleven rice millers concerns, charging violation of the State's anti-trust laws.
Mann accuses the rice millers of collusive buying and price fixing in their purchases of rice from producers. He asks penalties ranging from a minimum of $863,000 to a maximum of $25,905,000, but did not seek cancellation of charters. His staff worked two months gathering evidence of the alleged conspiracy, Mann declared.

the post since 1933. Sadler declared Culberson was discharged because he failed to file rate reduction suits against the United Gas System. Culberson cited the record to show that United had accepted rate reductions ordered by the Commission without litigation, and had settled many individual rate controversies with city councils. Cotten will resign from the Senate. The appointment pays $5,000 a year and will probably take Cotten out of the race against Judge Tom Beauchamp of the Court of Criminal Appeals, named last week by Gov. O'Daniel to fill out the unexpired term of Judge Morrow, who resigned. It is likely, however, that Beauchamp will have other opponents, including Lloyd Davidson, state prosecutor before the highest criminal court.

FAVORITE RECIPES

Apple Sauce That is Different

Here is the apple sauce to serve with our pork roasts. It is a little different from the standard way and is a Norwegian recipe.

1 cup cooked apple pulp, sugar to taste (some prefer it sweeter than others), 1-8 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 tablespoon butter, and 1 tablespoon of prepared horseradish. Place pulp in saucepan with sugar and nutmeg.
When hot add the butter and horseradish. Good with any meat.—Ellie Wilcox Burt, Olympia, Wash.

Rhubarb Conserves and Jams

When rhubarb is no longer juicy and tender, pull up the stalks, remove leaves, wash, cut into pieces and cook with raisins—1 cup of raisins to 2 cups of hot rhubarb pulp. Add enough sugar to give desired sweetness, about 3-4 cup to one cup of mixture, and cook until moderately thick. Brown sugar may be used if desired and sliced lemon may be included. Chopped nut meats may be used too, adding just before mixture is taken from the fire.

For a jam of rhubarb and pineapple, use half as much pineapple pulp as rhubarb. Do not use more, as the pineapple flavor overcomes the rhubarb taste, if too much is used.

A delicious combination of strawberries and rhubarb may be made from canned strawberries, if fresh strawberries are not available. The No. 10 cans are very good for this.
Use equal parts of the berries and rhubarb, or loganberries may be used in place of strawberries. Use less of the logan berries as their flavor overcomes the rhubarb flavor, if too many are used.

Prunes, soaked and pitted, may be used, with a slice or two of lemon or orange and a small stick of cinnamon.

Half as many tame green gooseberries as rhubarb, cooked slowly so as to keep the shape of the berries, may be used.

In these combinations, where tart fruit is used, use 1 cup sugar to 1 cup of rhubarb pulp. For prunes or raisins, use less sugar. A large amount of sugar makes a sticky pro-

An Appetizing Salad

A very appetizing and nourishing salad may be made by adding a tablespoon of plain gelatin to the contents of a can of vegetable soup. Dissolve the gelatin in a little cold water, add to the soup which has been heated to boiling point. Stir well, pour into a mold, and set in refrigerator until firm. When ready to serve, unmold on a platter covered with crisp lettuce leaves. Sprinkle the top generously with grated cheese.

The next time some unexpected guests drop in at luncheon time, and you feel perplexed over what to serve for a light repast, try this salad, served with crackers.—Juliette Frazier, Hillsboro, Oregon.

Strawberries like tomatoes will produce fruit the first season. Considering the fact that strawberry planting in Texas, ordinarily takes place the last of October and the first of November, it's now high time for farm people to be making plans for securing the plant variety best adapted to their localities, believes Miss Jennie Camp of the A. & M.
College Extension Service. How cheaply plants can be secured was demonstrated last fall by members of the Cass county home demonstration council, who secured more than 30, 000 plants and sold them to individuals for 25 cents per 100 plants, or $2 per thousand. Less freight and postage. Likewise Bosque county secured 2,650, and Robertson county 4-H girls set out 8,000 plants all purchased cooperatively. Nine Austin families planted 13,500 strawberry plants. While Klondyke and Missionary are the long accepted varieties recommended by Extension Service officials for the East Texas area, the Alamo, Ranger, and Rio Grande varieties are worthy of consideration.

CASTROVILLE WINS SIXTH STRAIGHT GAME.

Castroville, Texas, Oct. 20.—Albert Vance and Howard Poth, coaches for the Castroville High School Comets six man football team are dickering now for a site for their big district game since winning over the D'Hanis High School Cowboys today 42 to 20. One of the largest crowds that has assembled here saw the lighter Castroville club beat into submission with vicious tackling, hard blocking, and real ball toting and passing a larger crew. Stirley Jagge was head and shoulders about his Comet team mates defensively because he accounted for most of the tackles himself single handed. Schott, 124-lb. regular end, got tackle after tackle even though he was faced with an opponent of 178-lb. caliber. In the third quarter D'Hanis' Captain Bendele ran two touchdowns back from punts, which ran their score up to 20 points, causing them to be in the lead for a short while. Stirley Jagge came back and scored 3 touchdowns on interceptions and end runs to put the game on ice.

Castroville's next game will decide the district champion in this zone when they play Camp Wood at Castroville this Friday (Oct. 27, 1939) at 3 P. M. Camp Wood has only been defeated once this season and looms up as possible championship material themselves.

HALLOWE'EN CARNIVAL SPONSORED BY P. T. A.

From The Owl.

Hallowe'en is coming, and with it a school carnival being sponsored by the Hondo P. T. A. Next Tuesday evening, October 31st, at six-thirty P. M. (before it's dark enough for sparks to show up well) the carnival will open on the main street in downtown Hondo. Plan to have your supper at the carnival with your friends, for there will be all kinds of food to choose from—everything from hot dogs to cake.

If you are carnival minded, and we think you are, you will be looking forward to the "House of Horrors" the eight graders are planning. Such gruesome pranks as these freshmen have under cover indicate many surprises in store.

Other entertainments that you can't miss are games of various kinds, sideshows in the real carnival spirit, a buggy ride, and a baby show. Exhibits from the Homemaking Department will provide further interest.

Come to the carnival and see your friends—they will all be there!

The D'Hanis Cowboys are scheduled to go to Yancey Friday for their second game with the Tigers this season. In the previous clash the Cowboys won easily, but more experience on the football field has made the Yancey six more dangerous. On Friday, November 3, the Cowboys travel to LaCoste.
